N°	Issue / question raised	Response
1.	Does this imply that this is not mandatory at the submission of tenders' stage, but rather after the evaluation of the bids?	Yes, at this stage its not mandatory but we shall need it before award therefore its important to start on the process now if you don't have it so that we don't have delays towards the end of the process.
2.	Must the contractor be a company with Memorandum and Articles of Association? Does this imply that other legal persons for instance sole proprietorship without Articles of Association are precluded from this tender?	This applies for only companies but individual consultants are welcome to tender as article of association is not applicable for them.
3.	Can a bank statement for the tenderer be used as the appropriate supporting document?	Yes, current bank statements shall be acceptable for individual consultants.
