1.6 Confidentiality

The tenderer or contractor and Enabel are bound to secrecy vis-à-vis third parties with regards to any confidential information obtained within the framework of this contract and will only divulge such information to third parties after receiving the prior written consent of the other party.

They will disseminate this confidential information only among appointed parties involved in the assignment. They guarantee that said appointed parties will be adequately informed of their obligations in respect of the confidential nature of the information and that they will comply therewith.

1.7 Deontological obligations

Any failure to conform with one or more of the deontological terms may lead to the exclusion of the candidate, the tenderer or the contractor from other public contracts concluded with Enabel.

For the duration of the contract, the contractor and its staff respect human rights and undertake not to go against political, cultural or religious customs of the beneficiary country. The tenderer or contractor is bound to respect fundamental labour standards, which are internationally agreed upon by the International Labour Organisation (ILO), namely the conventions on union freedom and collective bargaining, on the elimination of forced and obligatory labour, on the elimination of employment and professional discrimination and on the abolition of child labour.

Any attempt of a candidate or a tenderer to obtain confidential information, to proceed to illicit arrangements with competitors or to influence the evaluation committee or the contracting authority during the investigation, the clarification, evaluation of tenders and applicants comparison procedures will lead to the rejection of the application or the tender.

Moreover, in order to avoid any impression of risk of partiality or connivance in the follow-up and control of the performance of the contract, it is strictly forbidden to the contractor to offer, directly or indirectly, gifts, meals or any other material or immaterial advantage, of whatever value, to the employees of the contracting authority who are concerned, directly or indirectly, by the follow-up and/or control of the performance of the contract, regardless of their hierarchical rank.

Any tender will be rejected and any (public) contract will be cancelled once it appears that the contract awarding or its performance was related to the transfer of 'extraordinary commercial expenditure'. Extraordinary commercial expenditure is any commission that is not mentioned in the main contract or that does not result from a contract in good and due form referring to that contract, any commission that is paid for no actual legal service, any commission transferred into a fiscal paradise, any commission transferred to a beneficiary that is not clearly identified or to a company that obviously merely serves as a façade.

The contractor of the public contract commits to supply, upon the demand of the contracting authority, any supporting documents related to the performance conditions of the contract. The contracting authority will be allowed to proceed to any control, on paperwork or on the site, which it considers necessary to collect evidence to support the presumption of unusual commercial expenditure. Depending on the gravity of the facts observed, the contractor having paid unusual commercial expenditure is liable to have his contract cancelled or to be permanently excluded.

1.8 Applicable law and competent court

The public contract must be performed and interpreted according to Belgian law. The parties commit to sincerely perform their engagements to ensure the good performance of this contract. In case of litigation or divergence of opinion between the contracting authority and the contractor, the parties will consult each other to find a solution. Access rights

By submitting this tender, the tenderer certifies that he is not in any of the cases of exclusion listed in point 6.3 “Declaration on access rights and exclusion criteria”.

The tenderer will provide the required supporting document(s) with regard to the exclusion criteria mentioned under point 6 “Forms” to the contracting authority at the latest upon contract awarding.

Pursuant to section 70 of the Law of 17 June 2016, any tenderer who is in one of the situations referred to in sections 67 or 69 of the Law of 17 June 2016 may provide evidence to show that the actions taken by him are sufficient to demonstrate his reliability despite the existence of a relevant ground for exclusion. If this evidence is considered sufficient by the contracting authority, the tenderer concerned is not excluded from the award procedure.

The contracting authority may also check whether there are grounds for exclusion for subcontractor(s) within the meaning of Articles 67 to 69 of the Law of Law of 17 June 2016.

Selection criteria

Before the contracting authority can start investigating the regularity of the tenders and evaluating them on the basis of the award criterion/criteria, tenderers that do not meet certain minimum quality conditions shall be excluded from the procedure and their tender shall not be evaluated.

In view of the qualitative selection of tenderers and in conformity with Art. 65 to 74 of the Royal Decree of 18 April 2017, for this contract the tenderer must add to his tender documents a selection file with the information requested in point 6 “Forms”, namely the following:

A tenderer may, if necessary and for a specific contract, submit the capacities of other entities, whatever the legal nature of the relations existing between himself and these entities. In that case, he must prove to the contracting authority that, for the performance of the contract, he shall have the necessary resources by presenting the commitment of these entities to make such resources available to the supplier. Under the same conditions, a group of candidates or of tenderers can submit the capacities of the group's participants or those of other entities.

3.8.2 Regularity of tenders

Before proceeding to the evaluation and the comparison of the tenders, the contracting authority examines their regularity.

Tenders that have reservations about the tender documents, that are incomplete, unclear or ambiguous, or that contain elements that do not correspond to reality, may be rejected from the procedure.

The contracting authority reserves the right to regularise irregularities before and/or during the negotiations.

3.8.3 Negotiations

The formally and materially regular tenders shall be evaluated as to content by an evaluation commission. This evaluation shall be conducted on the basis of the award criteria mentioned below.

The contracting authority may decide to conduct negotiations with the most advantageous tenderers. After these negotiations, the tenderers can submit a best and final offer.

The tenderer whose tender is regular and the most advantageous on the basis of the award criteria mentioned below shall be designated the successful tenderer for this contract.

3.8.4 Award criteria

The contracting authority selects the regular tender that it finds to be most advantageous, taking account of the following criteria:

| 4) | Delivery timing | 10 |
| | The assessment of this criterion will be based on the delivery time specified in the offer. Regarding the evaluation of these sub-criteria will be based on a comparison of the timeframes offered. | |

3.8.5 Awarding the public contract

The contract will be awarded to the (selected) tenderer who submitted the most advantageous, possibly improved, tender on the basis of the criteria mentioned above and after the contracting authority has verified the accuracy of the Declaration on honour of this tenderer and provided the control shows that the Declaration on honour corresponds with reality.

We need to point out though, that in conformity with Art. 85 of the Law of 17 June 2016, there is no obligation for the contracting authority to award the contract.

The contracting authority can either renounce to award the contract, or redo the procedure, if necessary, through another awarding procedure.

The contracting authority allows the use of electronic means for the purpose of notification. Whether electronic means are used or not, when communicating, sharing and storing information, data must be kept complete and confidential.

4.3 Contract manager (Art. 11)

The managing official is Mr. Boaventura MUCAVELE, The managing official.
boaventura.mucavele@enabel.be

Once the contract is concluded, the contract manager is the main contact point for the supplier. Any correspondence or any questions with regards to the performance of the contract shall be addressed to him/her, unless explicitly mentioned otherwise in these tender documents (see namely, "Payment" below).

The contract manager is fully competent for the follow-up of the satisfactory performance of the contract, including issuing service orders, drawing up reports and states of affairs, approving the supplies and signing acceptance and failure report(s).

However, the signing of amendments or any other decision or agreement implying a deviation from the essential terms and conditions of the contract are not part of the competence of the contract manager. For such decisions the contracting authority is represented as stipulated under point 1.2 “Contracting authority”.

Under no circumstances is the contract manager allowed to modify the terms and conditions (e.g., performance deadline, etc.) of the contract, even if the financial impact is nil or negative. Any commitment, change or agreement that deviates from the conditions in the tender documents and that has not been notified by the contracting authority, shall be considered null and void.

4.4 Subcontractors (Art. 12-15)

The fact that the contractor entrusts all or part of his commitments to subcontractors does not release him of his responsibility towards the contracting authority. The latter does not recognize any contractual relation with these third parties.

The contractor remains, in any case, the only person liable towards the contracting authority. The contractor commits to having the contract performed by the persons indicated in the tender, except for force majeure. The persons mentioned or their replacements are all deemed to effectively be involved in the performance of the contract. Any replacements must be approved by the contracting authority.

4.5 Confidentiality (Art. 18)

The contractor and his employees are bound by a duty of reserve concerning the information which comes to their knowledge during performance of this contract. This information cannot under any circumstances be communicated to third parties without the written consent of the contracting authority. The contractor may, nevertheless, give this contract as a reference, provided that it indicates its status correctly (e.g. ‘in performance’) and that the contracting authority has not withdrawn this consent due to poor contract performance.

4.6 Intellectual property (Art. 19-23)

The contracting authority does not acquire the intellectual property rights created, developed or used during performance of the contract.

Without prejudice to paragraph 1 and unless otherwise stipulated in the contract documents, when the object of the contract consists of the creation, manufacture or the development of drawings and models or of logos, the contracting authority acquires the intellectual property thereof, as well as the right to trademark them, to have them registered and to have them protected.

For domain names created under the contract, the contracting authority also acquires the right to register and protect them, unless otherwise stipulated in the contract documents.

When the contracting authority does not acquire the intellectual property rights, it obtains a licence to exploit the results protected by the intellectual property rights for the exploitation modes that are mentioned in the contract documents.

4.7 Conformity of performance (Art. 34)

The works, supplies and services must comply in all respects with the contract documents. Even in the absence of technical specifications in contract documents, the works, supplies and services must comply in all respects with good practice.

4.8 Changes to the public contract (Art. 37 to 38/19)

4.8.1 Revision of prices (Art. 38/7)

For this contract, the price revision of accessories is permitted.

The prices are linked to changes in the health index. The basis of calculation is the value of this index in the month in which the letter notifying approval of the offer is sent. The indexation will take place annually in the month following the anniversary date of this letter. The figure obtained will be rounded up to the nearest Euro.

The price revision is calculated using the following formula:

Price revision = (revision coefficient (k) - 1) * revisable part

$k = 1 * hi/HI$

HI = Consumer Price Index on the day the tenders are opened.

hi = same index on the renewal date.

From the second year onwards, the successful tenderer may submit a new price offer as defined above at the beginning of the year. The revised prices will only be applied once they have been accepted by the contracting authority.

Consumer Price Index as per the National Statistics Institute (INE)

4.8.2 Unforeseen circumstances (Art. 38/9)

As a rule, the contractor is not entitled to any modification of the contractual terms due to circumstances of which the contracting authority was unaware.

A decision of the Belgian State to suspend cooperation with a partner country is deemed to be unforeseeable circumstances within the meaning of this article. Should the Belgian State break off or cease activities which implies therefore the financing of this contract, Enabel will do everything reasonable to agree a maximum compensation figure.

4.8.3 Change request for obsolescence of equipment

If an item of equipment becomes obsolete during the contract, for example in the event of a technical development, a change in range or a production, the successful tenderer will be required to offer equipment with comparable technical specifications.

Please note that this does not mean replacing equipment that has become obsolete for beneficiaries, but to ensure that the equipment available for purchase remains so. Similarly, if a laptop is to be changed to a laptop, it will be necessary to ensure that the accessories offered remain compatible, or, if necessary, update the accessories catalogue. Should this be the case, the successful bidder must notify the adjudicator and propose a new suitable new equipment. The price offered under this contract cannot be adjusted upwards. Adjusting the price of accessories is permitted.

When the supplier announces that a model has reached the end of its life, it submits a change request for validation.

The change request may also be refused, and a new competitive tendering procedure may have to be launched.

4.9 Preliminary technical acceptance (Art. 41-42)

The products cannot be affected unless they have been previously approved by the contract manager or his delegate.

Products which, at a given stage, do not comply with the verifications imposed are declared not to be in a technical acceptance status. At the request of the contractor, the contracting authority shall verify in accordance with the tender documents whether the products meet the required qualities or, at least, comply with good practice and comply with market conditions.

Where the contracting authority finds that the product presented is not in conformity with the requirements for examination, the contractor's request shall be deemed to have been void. A new request is made when the product is ready for reception.

4.10 Means of action of the contracting authority (Art. 44-51 and 123-124)

Failure of the contractor is not only related to services themselves but also to the whole of his obligations.

In order to avoid any impression of risk of partiality or connivance in the follow-up and control of the performance of the contract, it is strictly forbidden to the contractor to offer, directly or indirectly, gifts, meals or any other material or immaterial advantage, of whatever value, to the employees of the contracting authority who are concerned, directly or indirectly, by the follow-up and/or control of the performance of the contract, regardless of their hierarchical position.

In case of violation, the contracting authority can impose a set fine to the contractor for each violation, which can be up to three times the amount obtained by adding up the (estimated) values of the advantage offered to the employee and of the advantage that the successful tenderer hoped to obtain by offering the advantage to the employee. The contracting authority can decide independently about the application and the amount of this fine.

This term is without prejudice to the possible application of other measures as of right provided in the General Implementing Rules, namely the unilateral termination of the contract and /or the exclusion of contracts of the contracting authority for a determined duration.

4.10.1 Failure of performance (Art. 44)

The contractor is considered to be in failure of performance of the contract:

- When the delivery is not carried out in accordance with the conditions defined by the contract documents;
- At any time, when the performance is not conducted in such a way that it can be fully completed at the dates set;
- When the contractor does not follow written orders, which are given in due form by the contracting authority.

Any failure to comply with the provisions of the contract, including the non-observance of orders of the contracting authority, shall be recorded in a 'failure report', a copy of which shall be sent immediately to the successful tenderer by registered letter or equivalent.

The contractor shall repair the deficiencies without any delay. He can assert his right of defence by registered letter addressed to the contracting authority within fifteen calendar days from the date of dispatch of the 'failure report'. His silence is considered, after this period, as an acknowledgement of the facts recorded.

Any deficiencies found on his part render the contractor liable for one or more of the measures provided for in Art. 45 to 49 and 123 and 124.

4.10.2 Fines for delay (Art. 46-123)

Fines for delay are not related to penalties provided under Art. 46. They shall be due, without the need for notice, simply by the expiry of the implementation period without the issuing of a report, and they shall be automatically applied for the total number of days of delay.

Notwithstanding the application of fines for delay, the contractor shall continue to guarantee the contracting authority against any claims for compensation for which it may be liable to third parties due to the delay in performance of the contract.

4.10.3 Measures as of right (Art. 47-124)

When upon the expiration of the deadline given in Art. 44, § 2 for asserting his right of defence the successful tenderer has remained inactive or has presented means that are considered unjustified by the contracting authority, the latter may apply the measures as of right described in paragraph 2.

However, the contracting authority may apply measures as of right without waiting for the expiration of the deadline given in Art. 44, § 2, when the successful tenderer has explicitly recognized the deficiencies found.

The measures as of right are:

1° Unilateral termination of the contract. In this case the entire bond, or if no bond has been posted an equivalent amount, is acquired as of right by the contracting authority as lump sum damages. This measure excludes the application of any fine for delay in performance in respect of the terminated part of the contract;

2° Performance under own management of all or part of the non-performed contract;

3° Conclusion of one or more replacement contracts with one or more third parties for all or part of the contract remaining to be performed.

The measures referred to in 1°, 2° and 3° shall be taken at the expense and risk of the defaulting contractor. However, any fines or penalties imposed during the performance of a replacement contract shall be borne by the new successful tenderer.

4.11 Performance modalities (Art. 115 and seq.)

4.11.1 Partial orders (Art. 115)

The effective delivery is subject to a specific order sent by the contracting authority. The orders will be placed in function of the needs of the contracting authority.

The order will be identified by a unique number, to be mentioned in every related communication with the contracting authority. For each item, the order will also mention the quantity to be delivered, the contractual unit price and the final date of delivery in accordance with the contract's delivery period.

The orders will be sent by e-mail with automatic acknowledgement of receipt. The supplier shall send an acknowledgement of receipt via e-mail via the single person of contact for each order form received. This acknowledgement of receipt shall be sent no later than the 2nd working day from the date of dispatch of the order.

Any further correspondence pertaining to the order form (and to the delivery) follows the same rules as those for the dispatch of the order form when a party wants to establish proof of its intervention.

4.11.2 Deadlines and Delivery modalities (Art. 116)

The contracting authority has not specified the delivery period. Consequently, the tenderer must propose a delivery period (in calendar days) in its tender.

The supplier shall take all necessary measures to guarantee delivery to the contracting authority. Deliveries must be executed correctly whatever the time of year (including any holiday periods). The application of fines will continue to apply during holidays and company closure.

The delivery period will start from the second working day after the date of dispatch of the order form by the contracting authority.

In the event the acknowledgement of receipt of the order form is received after the period of two working days, upon written demand and justification of the supplier, the delivery period may be extended pro rata of the delay of the acknowledgement of receipt of the order form. When the contracting authority, upon examination of the written demand of the supplier, estimates that the demand is founded or partially founded, it will communicate him in writing which extension of the period is accepted.

The Purchase Order is addressed to the supplier either by registered letter, fax or any other means through which the date of dispatch can be determined unambiguously.

When the Purchase Order is clearly incorrect or incomplete and implementation of the order becomes impossible, the supplier immediately notifies the service that placed the order about this in writing in order to find a solution to allow for normal implementation of the order.

In any event, complaints about the order form are not admissible any more if they are not submitted within 15 calendar days from the day following the date on which the supplier has received the order form.

If exceptionally, the successful tenderer is not able to satisfy an order, he has to notify this by fax or e-mail within 2 working days starting from the day that the order is received or that the default is effective. This communication must be addressed to the contact person mentioned on the order form. The notice must describe the reasons for the default of delivery and propose one or more alternative solutions (delivery date, partial delivery...).

The contracting authority maintains the right to either accept one of the alternative solutions proposed, either to cancel the order.

The fact that the contracting authority accepts an alternative delivery date for all or part of an order does not relieve the successful tenderer from his liability in respect to the contractual deadlines, except in case of force majeure, which has to be proved by the successful tenderer. The date of reference for any calculation of penalties remains the initial date of the order.

4.11.3 Place where the services must be performed and formalities (Art. 149)

The supplies shall be delivered at the addressee(s) mentioned in the technical specifications. The list already provides a non-exhaustive overview of possible delivery locations. The awarding authority reserves the right to add to or amend this list. Transport of goods is deemed to be included in the prices.

4.11.4 Packaging (Art. 119)

Packaging will become the property of the contracting authority, without the supplier having any claim to compensation in this regard.

4.11.5 Verification of the delivery (Art. 120)

The supplier delivers only goods that have no apparent and/or hidden defects and that correspond strictly to the order (in kind, quantity, quality...) and, if necessary, to the prescriptions of related documents as well as applicable regulations, in compliance with good practice, the state of the art, the highest standards of usage, of reliability and of longevity, and for the purposes that the contracting authority has in mind, which the supplier knows or at least should know.

For each delivery, the supplier shall draw up a list in duplicate, which it shall hand over to the contracting authority on the day of dispatch or delivery of the order. The list specifies the products dispatched (description and reference number), the quantities, the special specification number, the order date, etc.

Each delivery must be complete.

Provisional acceptance only takes place after the complete inspection by the contracting authority of the conformity of the goods and services delivered. The contracting authority disposes of a period for verification of thirty days. This period will begin on the day after arrival of the supplies at the place of delivery, provided that the contracting authority is in possession of the delivery note or invoice.

The signature of (a staff member of) the contracting authority, in particular in electronic reception devices, upon delivery of the goods, does consequently only count as evidence of taking possession and does not concern the acceptance of the goods.

Acceptance on site counts as complete provisional acceptance.

In case of full or partial refusal of a delivery, the supplier is bound to take back, at his own costs and risks, the products refused. The contracting authority may ask the contractor to supply goods that comply as soon as possible, either cancel the order and get supplied by another supplier.

Acceptance implies the transfer of ownership and of risks of damage and loss.

4.11.6 Liability of the supplier (Art. 122)

The supplier shall be liable for his supplies up to the time when the inspection and notification formalities referred to under "Inspection of the supplies delivered (Art. 120)" are carried out, unless losses or damage occurring in the warehouses of the consignee are due to the events or circumstances referred to in Art. 54 and 56.

Moreover, the supplier shall guarantee the contracting authority against any claims for compensation for which he is liable towards third parties due to late performance of the contract or due to failure of the supplier.

4.12 Guarantee (Art. 134)

The warranty period begins on the date of receipt at the place of delivery, based on the warranty period mentioned in the technical data sheets.

This guarantee, which is included in the price of each product, will cover, at no extra cost, all travel, replacements, repairs, maintenance of equipment and spare parts required for the equipment to work properly for the guarantee period mentioned in the technical data sheets, from the date of receipt of each order.

The tenderer will provide the contact details of the warranty department.

Any failure to comply with the intervention deadlines will result in a statement of default.

IMPORTANT: The successful tenderer will be the sole and responsible contact in the event of non-compliance with the intervention deadlines and guarantee conditions. He will ensure that the required response times are scrupulously respected.

4.13 End of the contract (Art. 64-65, 120 and 128-135)

A representative of the contracting authority shall closely follow up the contract during performance (see point 4.3 “Contract manager (Art. 11)”).

4.14 Modifications to the contract (Art. 37-38 and 121)

The contracting authority has the right to change the initial tender unilaterally, if the following conditions are respected:

- 1° the scope of the contract remains unaltered.
- 2° the modification is limited to 10 % of the initial awarded amount.

The essential terms and conditions can only be modified with reasons, to be mentioned in an amendment.

4.15 Litigation (Art. 73)

This contract and all legal consequence that might ensue fall fully within the scope of Belgian law. In case of litigation or divergence of opinion between the contracting authority and the contractor, the parties will consult each other to find a solution.

If agreement is lacking, the competent courts of Brussels shall have exclusive jurisdiction over any dispute arising from the performance of this contract. French or Dutch are the languages of proceedings.

The contracting authority shall in no case be held liable for any damage caused to persons or property as a direct or indirect consequence of the activities required for the performance of this contract. The contractor guarantees the contracting authority against any claims for compensation by third parties in this respect.

In case of “litigation”, i.e. court actions, correspondence must (also) be sent to the following address:

Enabel, Public-law Company with social purposes

Should this be the case, the successful bidder must notify the adjudicator and propose a new suitable new equipment. 6.2 Integrity statement for the tenderers

By submitting this tender, the tenderer declares on honour the following (cf. Art. 52 and seq. of the Law of 17 June 2016):

- Neither members of administration or staff members, or any person or legal person the tenderer has concluded an agreement with in view of performing the contract, may obtain or accept from a third party, for themselves or for any other person or legal person, an advantage appreciable in cash (for instance, gifts, bonuses or any other kind of benefits), directly or indirectly related to the activities of the person concerned for the account of Enabel.
- The board members, staff members or their partners have no financial or other interests in the firms, organisations, etc. that have a direct or indirect link with Enabel (which could, for instance, bring about a conflict of interests).
- He has read and understood the articles about deontology and anti-corruption included in the tender documents and declares going along completely and respecting these articles.

He is also aware of the fact that the personnel of Enabel are tied to the provisions of an ethical code, which states that: “In order to ensure the impartiality of personnel, they are not allowed to solicit, demand or receive gifts, bonuses or any other kind of benefits for themselves or third parties, whether in exercising their function or not, when said gifts, bonuses or benefits are linked to that exercising. Privately, staff members do not accept any financial or other bonus, gift or benefit for services rendered”.

If above-mentioned contract is awarded to the tenderer, he declares, moreover, agreeing with the following provisions:

- In order to avoid any impression of risk of partiality or connivance in the follow-up and control of the performance of the contract, it is strictly forbidden to the contractor of the contract (i.e. members of administration and workers) to offer, directly or indirectly, gifts, meals or any other material or immaterial advantage, of whatever value, to the employees of Enabel who are concerned, directly or indirectly, by the follow-up and/or control of the performance of the contract, regardless of their hierarchical position.
- Any (public procurement) contract will be terminated, once it appears that contract awarding or contract performance would have involved the obtaining or the offering of the above-mentioned advantages appreciable in cash.
- Any failure to conform with one or more of the deontological terms may lead to the exclusion of the contractor from this contract and from other contracts for Enabel.
- The contractor of the public contract commits to supply, upon the demand of the contracting authority, any supporting documents related to the performance conditions of the contract. The contracting authority will be allowed to proceed to any control, on paperwork or on site, which it considers necessary to collect evidence to support the presumption of unusual commercial expenditure.

Finally, the tenderer takes cognisance of the fact that Enabel reserves the right to lodge a complaint with the competent legal instances for all facts going against this statement and that all administrative and other costs resulting are borne by the tenderer.
