Call for Proposals: Supporting the psychological health and well-being of youth caregivers. As part of the Intervention: “Youth Protection & Civic Engagement”
Reference: PSE22002-10021
QUESTION	ANSWER
1. Can the applicant implement the activities online only?	Activities are expected to be implemented on the ground, with the target groups of the project.
2. Can the applicant based outside Palestine apply?	Please refer to 2.1.1 Admissibility of applicants (applicant and co-applicant(s)) of the guidelines; page 6. The Applicant must “be established or represented in Palestine”
3. Can a for-profit Company apply?	Only non-profit organizations can apply for this call.
4. Does the applicant need to implement in all West Bank Governorates?	The main applicant should prove that they have experience working in as many locations in the West Bank including East Jerusalem as possible. However, the project will not cover all the needs in all places in the West Bank. The applicant is expected to prioritize the most vulnerable locations in the West Bank including East Jerusalem and justify the selection of certain localities.
5. Does the applicant need to address all the results to be achieved as per the guidelines?	Enabel will prioritise concept notes that will respond to all suggested results in the guidelines. Enabel will not accept a proposal that will target some of the results.
6. Should the applicant submit a formal letter to confirm full access to all areas in the West Bank including East Jerusalem?	Enabel assesses the capacities of the selected organizations. Some sections of the templates to be completed will also indicate the level of access enjoyed by the applicant in the West Bank including East Jerusalem.
7. Is it possible to extend the project for three years in order to achieve better impact?	The project timeframe is limited to the duration indicated in the guidelines. See page 7 of the guidelines. “The initial planned duration of an action may not be less than 24 months nor exceed 30 months”.
8. Will the funds be granted to several applicants?	It is only one application that will be selected. As per the guidelines, one organization can apply individually or with one co-applicant.
9. How many concept notes will be selected for the proposal phase?	The guidelines specified a maximum of three Concept notes.
10. When submitting the Concept Note, does the applicant need to complete part B of the template?	For the concept note, please fill in part A of the templates ONLY.
